

About

Visuals Branding Known internally as the Studio team, our specialty was bespoke design for the world's biggest creators and gaming brands. What began as a few one-off projects for streamers evolved into a separate business unit in need of its own, unique identity.

In 2018 the vision for a new brand began. It would be an agency focused exclusively on custom design for VIP influencers and brands. The name, Visuals Branding, harkens to fresh beginnings and innovation. Staffed with the same award-nominated creatives, our team has more talent and resources than ever. The mission remains the same: to connect fans and creators like never before.

"A creative edge for the gaming industry."
